

Payroll 101 class provides the opportunity to take FPC Exam

You asked for it, now here it is; an additional opportunity to take APA's Payroll 101: The Standard Foundation of Payroll Administration class followed by the Fundamental Payroll Certification (FPC) exam! Due to an overwhelming response, the American Payroll Association has added a Payroll 101 class in Las Vegas on September 24 - 28, with the exam on the afternoon of September 28.

Register today for Payroll 101 at The White House Las Vegas Learning Center.

The added class provides students with the option to take the FPC exam at the end of the course.* Payroll 101 is ideal for those entering the payroll profession and managers who are new to payroll compliance issues. Topics covered include calculations using FLSA requirements, voluntary and involuntary deductions from pay, and independent contractor vs. employee classification.

Visit www.americanpayroll.org to register today.

Don't miss this added chance to take Payroll 101 and the FPC exam.* Contact APA's Certification Department at (210) 226-4600 before making your travel arrangements.

*Note: The FPC exam is priced separately from the class.